Expanding the Lord's Prayer

FROM PASTOR SEABAUGH

It sounds like scary stuff. We're not supposed to take the word of God and "expand" it. It's good enough by itself! I believe that's true. What we need to understand is that the word of God isn't the ink on the page or the pixel on the screen. It's the meaning behind the word that matters, not the word itself. That's why we use an expanded version of the Lord's Prayer occasionally in worship. We're simply putting into different words what we've been praying all along. Let's go through it line by line.

Our dear Father enthroned above,

Below in our bulletin it says, In silence praise and thank our loving, nurturing, protecting God. Our Father is our "dear" Father who is "enthroned" with all power and might. We are the redeemed children of God addressing the God who made us! Awesome!

May Your mission be the greatest truth.

Below it says, In silence honor and adore our Father's holy name. This one really puzzles people. Let me try to explain. For decades I didn't know what a "hallowed" was. As a child I thought it was "hollow." You know, the cavernous voice of God used in the movies? Yea. Hallowed = holy. But I've found that many of us don't know what "holy" means. Usually I find people think it means "perfect." Not true. Holy actually means "set apart," typically for the purpose of God. A holy name? I recently preached on the name of God, so here's a synopsis. It's more than just a label we slap on God. God's name represents everything he stands for. More than just his identity, God has a mission! His mission is to restore his perfect creation through his Son Jesus who won forgiveness of sins! That mission is holy! That mission is the greatest truth. Can you think of a truth greater than the mission of God? That's how God's name is holy.

May Your kingdom-community come,

Below it says, In silence thank God for your brothers and sisters in Christ, and pray that the Holy Spirit may bring others to faith. The kingdom of God is a community. It's here now and it's coming. It's here now when God brings people to faith in him by the power of the Holy Spirit. Sins are forgiven and the mission of God is accomplished in people. We pray that God's kingdom-community comes to all people and that God would use us to play our part! We also know Jesus is coming back some day. When he does, the earth will be restored and all believers will rise to new life and live with him forever. We pray for the coming of that kingdom-community too!

May Your gracious, perfect will be done;

Below it says, In silence release to God those things beyond our understanding. God reveals some things to us in his word, and other things he chooses to keep to himself. What we know of God's will is that he gives to us beyond what we deserve (gracious) and that his will is without error (perfect). This petition simply encourages us to release to God those things he has hidden from us and replace our anxieties with trust in his gracious perfect will.

Give us each day our necessary food;

Below it says, In silence thank God for how He provides for your life and pray that the abundance be shared with those in need. "Daily bread" = everything we need to support this body and life. Even as the population of the earth has exploded, there is still enough food and clothes and shelter for us all. Any lack of these necessities in any given place is not a failing of God, but a failing of man. We hoard and we waste what God has provided for us all. This petition encourages us to thank God for what we have and share with those who don't.

Expanding the Lord's Prayer, Continued FROM PASTOR SEABAUGH

Forgive us our sins as we strive to forgive those who wrong us;

Below it says, In silence humbly accept God's forgiveness and plead to God for the strength to let go of your desire for revenge. We have an amazing example of forgiveness in Jesus. Jesus lays down his life so we can be forgiven. Even though we sin daily, God still forgives us. Take a moment to read Matthew 18:23-35. If God has forgiven us this much, what should we do for one another? We pray to God here that he would strengthen us to forgive as we have been forgiven.

For You would not lead us into temptation,

Below it says, In silence praise God for every opportunity he gives to avoid sin. Luther is clear in his Small Catechism. "God tempts no one." He's right. God guides us through life, but not into temptation! We have to realize that every temptation to sin comes from the devil, who sometimes is doing his best God impersonation. Rather, God always gives us a way out (1 Corinthians 10:13). We pray for the strength to take it.

But You rescue us from the powers of evil.

Below it says, In silence praise God for victory over the devil through Jesus' death and resurrection. This one brings us back to the name of God discussion from earlier. God's mission is to rescue us from evil. How perfect that the prayer essentially begins and ends with the mission of God. We begin by saying how his mission is the greatest truth and we end by acknowledging the success of that mission over evil. We end the Lord's Prayer with confidence and praise. The God we pray to is victorious! Alleluia!

The rest of the Lord's Prayer was tacked on later by the church. I like it. It mirrors the language of praise in Revelation. The last bit I want to address is the word Amen. Amen means "truly" or "YES!" or "I believe it!" Growing up I just thought it was what we said to finish the prayer. Amen doesn't necessarily end anything! Often Jesus would begin by saying "Truly, truly I say to you..." Those "truly's" are "amen" in the Greek! Amen is the attention getter! It's the springboard. It's the plunge of faith. Yes! I believe it's true! Which is exactly how we feel about this prayer. Amen!

Blessings, Pastor Seabaugh

FROM JORDAN RAY, DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN OUTREACH

Disciples Sharing Stories - Acts 14

In the end of Acts 14, Paul and Barnabas return from their missionary journey and arrive back at their sending church in Antioch. Scripture tells us that "on arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles." In many Lutheran churches, about once a year, a missionary will return to the churches that support them and share stories of the work that God has been doing through them. What a joy these stories are to hear! God does amazing things through his disciples overseas.

So what about us? What about the disciples who are not called to go overseas? How do we share our stories of what God is doing through us? Well, WaterLife has been an opportunity for us to hear about the doors God has opened for the Gospel in the lives of the disciples gathered at Bethel, but it doesn't end there. Share your story of how God has transformed your life through Christ with others at every opportunity. Witness to what you've seen God do. Bless us by sharing your story.

Dear Lord, we thank you for every opportunity to share with others the love we've found in you. We thank you for the disciples in our lives who did not keep silent, but shared their stories of you with us. Amen.

EPIC — THE FUTURE CHURCH NOW!

EPIC—The Future Church Now! Spend Wednesday evenings at Bethel growing in faith with Bethel's Youth group (7th - 12th grade). Come for fellowship, Bible study and fun on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-9:00 pm. Bring money for Connie's Creamy Cone all Summer!

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

June is a wonderful month. The grass is green, flowers are blooming and trees are budding. The birds can be heard singing their heavenly songs. The fragrances of summer are in the air for all to enjoy and the gentle rains produce magnificent rainbows. Who can deny God's majesty after seeing the beauty of His creation?

Sunday, June 17th is the day when we celebrate Father's Day, a meaningful reminder that "family" remains an extremely important part of our life. Our Heavenly Father knows how important fathers are. Children need a father who provides for them, loves them, and gives wise direction to their lives. We pray that our understanding God grants all fathers emotional strength to deal with family situations, wisdom to know how to instill strong values in their children, and the patience to endure all things. Father's Day has become a day to not only honor fathers, but also all men who act as a father figure such as stepfathers, grandfathers, uncles, and adult male friends. Lord, please watch over and protect our fathers.

On June 20th we officially welcome summer. A popular song of years ago spoke about the "good old summertime." A time when school children are out of school and family vacations are enthusiastically being planned. We fondly remember classic summertime pleasures such as baseball, picnics, outdoor concerts, and family reunions. Summer is a time to enjoy the beauty of the lakes, mountains, forests, and a heaven collecting a multitude of stars, a moon and the sun. The grandeur of these creations, God's creations, remind us of the awesome majesty of our God and serve as a testament of our Heavenly Father's unending love for us.

Our God is a devoted and caring God. He will not forget us during the summer months and we should not forget our God while we are vacationing. He will continue to watch over us and protect us while we enjoy the wonders of His creations.

Have a great time this summer and please take time to remember your financial obligations to Bethel Lutheran Church. If you miss a Sunday or two, resolve to make up for it when you return or, better yet, before you leave. As Christian stewards, we want to recognize our responsibility to preserve God's work and acknowledge that expenses of sharing God's word continue year round. We need to be good stewards of the gifts God has graciously given each of us.

In the service of our Lord,

Financial Stewardship Team

COINS FOR MISSIONS OFFERING

Coins for Missions Offering will be for start-up funds for the new Otsego Mission. The Otsego area is one of the fastest growing communities in the seven county metro area (14,000 people). Surprisingly, only two Christian churches are currently doing ministry within the city limits of Otsego. The need for the proclamation of Jesus Christ as Savior is great! Bethel members are invited to bring their COINS to church by Sunday, June 10th.

During the Opening Service of the MN South LCMS Convention on June 14, Pastor Seabaugh and Ken Halverson will be given the opportunity to make a joyful noise to the Lord as they deposit those coins in the Coins for Missions collection buckets.
